The SPEAKER pro tempore. Pursuant to the rule, the gentleman from California (Mr. McCLINTOCK) and the gentlewoman from Michigan (Mrs. DINGELL) each will control 20 minutes.

The Chair recognizes the gentleman from California.

GENERAL LEAVE

Mr. McCLINTOCK. Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent that all Members may have 5 legislative days to revise and extend their remarks and include extraneous materials on the bill under consideration.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Is there objection to the request of the gentleman from California?

There was no objection.

Mr. McCLINTOCK. Mr. Speaker, I yield myself such time as I may consume.

Mr. Speaker, I would like to acknowledge the gentlemen from Oregon, Mr. DEFAZIO and Mr. WALDEN, for their hard work on this important piece of legislation that will benefit several Indian tribes in the State of Oregon.

H.R. 2791 is a compilation of three stand-alone bills that were reported out of the Natural Resources Committee and passed by the full House as part of larger measures during the 113th Congress.

Since I have every confidence that Mr. DEFAZIO will describe the bill in detail, I will, at this point, reserve the balance of my time.

Mrs. DINGELL. Mr. Speaker, I yield myself such time as I may consume.

H.R. 2791 is the culmination of years of work to address the wrongs of the past. The “termination era” in Federal Indian policy is one of the darkest chapters in American history. In Oregon, all but one of the tribes lost their Federal recognition.

Fortunately, the Federal Government eventually saw the error of their ways and restored the recognition of the tribes, but they were now left with nonexistent or inadequate land bases.

H.R. 2791, the Western Oregon Tribal Fairness Act, will go a long way in helping reestablish long-promised land bases for the Oregon tribes, while also giving them the ability to effectively manage their land on their own terms.

Like my colleague, I want to thank our colleagues from Oregon, Mr. DEFAZIO and Mr. WALDEN, for listening to the needs of the Oregon tribal people and continuing to push for this bipartisan legislation.

All the sections included in this bill passed the House by voice vote last Congress, and I urge my colleagues to do the same now.

Mr. Speaker, I reserve the balance of my time.

Mr. McCLINTOCK. Mr. Speaker, I reserve the balance of my time.

Mrs. DINGELL. Mr. Speaker, I yield such time as he may consume to the gentleman from Oregon (Mr. DEFAZIO).

Mr. DEFAZIO. Mr. Speaker, I thank the gentlewoman for both the kind words and for yielding the time here on the floor. I particularly want to thank the chairman of the Federal Lands Subcommittee and his words of support, also, and I thank the committee for sending this bill to the floor.

The Western Oregon Tribal Fairness Act is a bipartisan, no-cost, common-sense bill that will go a long way toward helping resolve some of the problems Federal Government and its hazardous policy shifts have created for three western Oregon tribes. The bill provides fairness for three tribes: the Coos, Lower Umpqua, and Siuslaw; the Cow Creek; and the Coquille.

The bill contains the text of provisions within H.R. 5701, which passed unanimously last December, but was not enacted into law.

For too long, Federal policies have unfairly disadvantaged Indian tribes in western Oregon. After signing many treaties with the tribes, the United States removed them from their original homelands and put them on only two reservations, established to house potentially more than 60 tribal governments.

In 1954, Congress made things worse. All tribes west of the Cascades lost Federal recognition when the Western Oregon Termination Act became law. Scholars called it the “termination era.” It was terrible Federal Indian policy. It was so bad that it was formally rebuked by Congress less than 30 years later.

In the 1970s, Congress began the process of restoring the western Oregon tribes to Federal recognition, cleaning up the mess and injustice the United States had made.

In fact, I began my congressional career as an original sponsor of the Coquille Restoration Act, legislation to restore one of Oregon’s terminated tribes; yet, even today, it remains difficult for these tribes to function as the sovereign nations they are and to govern themselves effectively. Unlike many tribes, the Coos, Lower Umpqua, and Siuslaw, as well as the Cow Creek, are deprived of any land held in trust.

Unlike any other tribe in the United States, the Coquille Indian Tribe must function under a legal anomaly with regard to its own forest.

The Western Oregon Tribal Fairness Act makes good on a decades-old promise to restore land bases for the Coos and Cow Creek tribes, and it puts the Coquille Indian Tribe’s forest on an equal footing with those of other Indian tribes nationwide.

H.R. 2791 deals only with Oregon issues, Oregon tribes, and Oregon constituents.

Mr. Speaker, I strongly encourage my colleagues to support the bill.

Mrs. DINGELL. Mr. Speaker, I urge all Members to join us in supporting this bill.

I yield back the balance of my time.

Mr. McCLINTOCK. Mr. Speaker, my complete faith in Mr. DEFAZIO’s powers of description was well placed. I endorse his remarks and ask for adoption of the measure.

Mr. Speaker, I yield back the balance of my time.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The question is on the motion offered by the gentleman from California (Mr. McCLINTOCK) that the House suspend the rules and pass the bill, H.R. 2791.

The question was taken; and (two-thirds being in the affirmative) the rules were suspended and the bill was passed.

A motion to reconsider was laid on the table.

NEW MEXICO NAVAJO WATER SETTLEMENT TECHNICAL CORRECTIONS ACT

Mr. McCLINTOCK. Mr. Speaker, I move to suspend the rules and pass the bill (S. 501) to make technical corrections to the Navajo water rights settlement in the State of New Mexico, and for other purposes.

The Clerk read the title of the bill.

The text of the bill is as follows:

S. 501

(1) in paragraph (2), by striking “Arrellano” and inserting “Arellano”; and

(2) in paragraph (27), by striking “75–185” and inserting “75–184”.

(b) DELIVERY AND USE OF NAVAJO-GALLUP WATER SUPPLY PROJECT WATER.—Section 10603(c)(2)(A) of the Omnibus Public Land Management Act of 2009 (Public Law 111–11; 123 Stat. 1385) is amended—

(1) in clause (i), by striking “Article III(c)” and inserting “Articles III(c)”; and

(2) in clause (ii)(II), by striking “Article III(c)” and inserting “Articles III(c)”.

(d) AUTHORIZATION OF APPROPRIATIONS.—Section 10609 of the Omnibus Public Land Management Act of 2009 (Public Law 111–11; 123 Stat. 1395) is amended—

(3) in subsection (f)(1), by striking “4 percent” and inserting “2 percent”.

(e) AGREEMENT.—Section 10701(e) of the Omnibus Public Land Management Act of 2009 (Public Law 111–11; 123 Stat. 1400) is amended in paragraphs (2)(A), (2)(B), and (3)(A) by striking “and Contract” each place it appears.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Pursuant to the rule, the gentleman from California (Mr. McCLINTOCK) and the gentlewoman from Michigan (Mrs. DINGELL) each will control 20 minutes.

The Chair recognizes the gentleman from California.

GENERAL LEAVE

Mr. McCLINTOCK. Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent that all Members have 5 legislative days to revise and extend their remarks and include extraneous materials on the bill under consideration.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Is there objection to the request of the gentleman from California?

There was no objection.

Mr. McCLINTOCK. Mr. Speaker, I yield myself such time as I may consume.

S. 501, the New Mexico Navajo Water Settlement Technical Corrections Act, makes a number of small changes to a Federal law impacting the Navajo Nation’s water projects in New Mexico.

The bill specifically fixes misspellings, citations, and other errors to help expedite the completion of water infrastructure projects.

I urge my colleagues to support this noncontroversial bill, and I reserve the balance of my time.

Mrs. DINGELL. Mr. Speaker, I yield myself such time as I may consume.

S. 501 would make technical corrections, as my colleague has stated, to the Navajo-Gallup Water Supply Project, which was authorized by Congress in the Omnibus Public Land Management Act of 2009.

□ 1615

The legislation will help provide a reliable water supply to tribal communities on a faster timeline and promote economic growth in northwestern New Mexico. This legislation has the administration’s support and has already passed the Senate by unanimous consent.

I want to thank my friend and colleague, Congressman BEN RAY LUJÁN of New Mexico, the sponsor of the companion legislation here in the House, for all of his hard work and leadership on this critical issue.

I fully support S. 501 and urge its adoption by all Members.

Mr. Speaker, I yield back the balance of my time.

Mr. McCLINTOCK. Mr. Speaker, I also urge all Members to support the bill.

I yield back the balance of my time.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The question is on the motion offered by the gentleman from California (Mr. McCLINTOCK) that the House suspend the rules and pass the bill, S. 501.

The question was taken; and (two-thirds being in the affirmative) the rules were suspended and the bill was passed.

A motion to reconsider was laid on the table.
